MARION COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES

The following has been established by the Scholarship Committee of Marion Community Foundation to provide guidelines for the operation of the Scholarship Program at Marion Community Foundation. The Scholarship Committee has full authority from the Board of Directors of Marion Community Foundation to establish, implement, enforce, and modify these guidelines.

APPLICABLE LAW

The employees, Scholarship Committee members, and the Board of Directors of Marion Community Foundation will be subject to all applicable laws, regulations, and rules regarding the administration of the scholarship program.

The Pension Protection Act of 2006 prohibits grants to individuals from funds that meet the fairly broad definition of donor-advised funds. For this reason, all funds that will be making grants to individuals must be sure not to fall within the definition of donor advised funds, even inadvertently. Under Section 4966 of the Tax Code, a fund will not be considered a donor-advised fund if all the following are true:

The sponsoring organization (the community foundation) appoints all of the members of the scholarship committee and the donor's advice is given solely as a member of the committee; Neither the donor nor the parties related to the donor control the scholarship committee directly or indirectly; and,

All grants are awarded on an objective and nondiscriminatory basis using a procedure that has been approved in advance by the board of directors of the sponsoring organization and that has been designed to ensure that all such grants meet the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) of section 4945(g) of the Tax Code.

The Foundation intends for the award from this fund to be a non-taxable qualified scholarship. As such, the Foundation will disburse the scholarship award in a manner that best attempts to ensure the funds are used only for:

tuition and fees required to enroll at or attend an eligible educational institution, meaning one whose primary function is the presentation of formal instruction, normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum, and normally has a regularly enrolled body of students in attendance at the place where it carries on its educational activities; and course-related expenses, such as fees, books, supplies, and equipment that are required for the courses at the eligible educational institution and that must be required of all students in the course of instruction.

Any amounts in excess of the above shall be refunded and returned to the Foundation. If the eligible educational institution applies any amounts to any charges other than the above, including, but not limited to, such expenses as room and board, then the eligible educational institution shall be responsible for notifying the student/recipient that such amounts are taxable income. All of a portion of this scholarship may be taxable income, Recipients should consult a tax advisor for more information.

Scholarship awards may only be payable to a non-profit, federally tax-exempt eligible educational institution as defined by the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations.

GENERAL RULES

Unless specifically permitted by the terms of a particular scholarship fund, recipients must be a "candidate for a degree at an eligible educational institution."

"Candidate for a degree" means the recipient is:

Pursuing a degree at a college or university; or Attending an educational institution that:
Provides a program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's or higher degree, or offers a program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation; and,
Is authorized under federal or state law to provide such a program and is accredited by a nationally recognized accreditation agency.

"Eligible educational institution" means one (1) whose primary function is the presentation of formal instruction and (2) that normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and (3) normally has a regularly enrolled body of students in attendance at the place where it carries on its educational activities.

Therefore, unless specifically permitted by the terms of a particular scholarship fund, scholarships shall not be awarded to students enrolled in online, digital, or other types of distance-learning institutions.

The Foundation may do any combination of the following for any unused portion of a scholarship award that is forfeited or returned:

Decide to hold and apply the amount to a new eligible educational institution as long as the student enrolls in such new eligible educational institution no later than the immediately following spring term (provided, however, that the all the terms, requirements, and criteria of the particular scholarship fund continue to be met, especially any requirements that may relate to a specified eligible educational institution).

Be extended to the following academic year for the Recipient.

Retain or return the amount to the principal of the fund.

Award part of all of the unused amount to a different Recipient in the current scholarship application year.

Hold the unused amount and make it available to be awarded to a new Recipient(s) in the next succeeding scholarship application year.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION RULES AND GUIDELINES

Applicants who fail to fully complete the scholarship application by the deadline will not be considered in the review process and are ineligible to receive a scholarship award. Incomplete FAFSA information will not be considered as an excuse for failure to submit the application by the deadline. Students whose parents have not received the appropriate tax information or documentation in time must still complete the FAFSA in the manner provided under such circumstances and submit their FAFSA/SAR/EFC information to the Foundation prior to the scholarship application deadline. EXCEPTION: Applicants may elect to not include the Applicant's FAFSA or standardized test score information in the Applicant's application, but such election and failure to include such information may disqualify such Applicant from the terms of particular scholarship criteria and requirements and Foundation's Scholarship Committee may take into consideration - to the detriment of the Applicant - the lack of FAFSA or standardized test score information when making its award decisions.

The preceding general rule shall be followed as much as possible; however, any of the following may be considered by the Scholarship Committee in its sole discretion as an exception to the above general rule, in which case the Scholarship Committee may permit an application to be filed after the deadline:

Applicants whose school guidance counselor or other school, college, or university official contacts the Foundation before the application deadline and informs the Foundation that the school, college, or university was unable to submit required information or documentation due to an unavoidable event such as, but not necessarily limited to, a mechanical or electronic failure or problem with its data transmission system.

The unexpected death or physical incapability of a recommender, school guidance counselor, or other school, college, or university official who was responsible for forwarding required information or documentation to the Foundation if the Foundation is notified before the application deadline of the facts related to such incapability.

Legal non-citizens who are incapable by law of completing the FAFSA.

An act of God or other natural disaster that prohibited the completion of the application by the deadline.

Applicants who are not a U.S. citizen are not eligible for a scholarship award. The following applicants who are not a U.S. citizen are excepted from this general rule and are eligible for a scholarship award:

Persons who have been granted legal status in the United States (for example, but not limited to, a lawful permanent resident, a lawful conditional permanent resident, or a lawful temporary visitor); or,

Persons who possess a valid certificate of non-citizen national status issued by the U.S. Secretary of State; or,

S. Nationals.

If the terms, requirements, and criteria of a particular scholarship fund expressly state that an applicant must have attended a specifically named high school, then students who have been "home schooled" or students who have been enrolled in a "community school" (including, but not limited to, so-called virtual schools, online schools, or e-schools) or a state recognized "private religious school" or "chartered non-public school" are not eligible for awards from that particular scholarship fund. If the terms, requirements, and criteria of a scholarship fund do not expressly state that an applicant must have attended a specifically named high school, then students who have been "home schooled" or students who have been enrolled in a "community school" or a state recognized "private religious school" or "chartered non-public school" will be eligible for consideration for a scholarship award. "Community school" and state recognized "private religious schools" and "chartered non-public school" have the meanings proscribed to them by the Ohio Revised Code, the Ohio Administrative Code, and the Ohio Department of Education.

All applicants will give permission to the Marion Community Foundation staff and Scholarship Committee to communicate with any person regarding the applicant's academic and financial information, or any other information the staff or committee deems necessary.

A high school student who completes his or her high school graduation requirements earlier than the standard completion date (e.g., a student who completes all high school graduation requirements in fewer than eight standard terms), but who does not receive a diploma or "graduate" at such time, shall be treated as a "senior and candidate for graduation" during the Foundation's scholarship application process immediately following the student's completion of his or her graduation requirements. Conversely, a high school student who completes his or her high school graduation requirements earlier than the standard completion date (e.g., a student who completes all high school graduation requirements in fewer than eight standard terms), but who does receive a diploma and "graduates" at such time, shall be treated as a "graduate" during the Foundation's scholarship application process immediately following the student's completion of his or her graduation requirements.

Foundation will use the information as submitted by the applicant on the application when reviewing and determining whether the applicant meets the criteria and requirements of Foundation's various scholarships.

Foundation will use the applicant's name exactly as submitted by the applicant on the application when making award notifications, correspondence, awards certificates, award ceremonies, and any promotion in print or otherwise unless the applicant specifically notifies Foundation in writing of a different name to use.

Foundation will rely on the good faith integrity of the applicant to submit all information on the application in an honest and accurate manner and the applicant shall attest to the honesty, accuracy, and integrity of the application at the time the application is submitted. If Foundation becomes aware of any lack of honesty, accuracy, or integrity in the application, Foundation may take any action it deems appropriate or necessary, including rejection of the application or revocation of any scholarship awarded.

By submitting an application, the applicant agrees to all the guidelines, procedures, and requirements of Foundation's Scholarship Program Guidelines and Procedures.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS: RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Scholarship awards may only be payable to a non-profit, federally tax exempt eligible educational institution as defined by the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations.

Recipients must meet all the requirements and criteria of the scholarship to which they were awarded.

Proof of a student's grade point average shall be based upon an official school transcript that has been received by the Foundation with the student's application. It is the recipient's sole and absolute responsibility to obtain such transcript and ensure its receipt by the Foundation before the deadline.

A recipient must be a "candidate for a degree" enrolled and in good standing at his or her "eligible educational institution" (as those terms are defined herein and by the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations) to be eligible to receive a scholarship award. Proof of a student's enrollment and status shall be based upon official school documentation that has been received by the Foundation no later than thirty (30) days after the start of the term. It is the recipient's sole and absolute responsibility to obtain such documentation and ensure its receipt by the Foundation before the deadline.

Recipients must deliver to the Foundation a copy of their tuition and fee statement from their eligible educational institution no later than thirty (30) days after the start of the term. Failure to deliver said tuition and fee statement will result in the rescission and revocation of the scholarship award.

A scholarship award to a Recipient may be rescinded or revoked, in the sole and absolute and absolute discretion and judgment by a majority of the Scholarship Committee of the Foundation, if the Recipient:

- Fails to demonstrate high standards of citizenship.

- Fails to demonstrate high standards of moral character.

- Has been charged with, pled guilty to, or found guilty by a court of law of any criminal offense other than a minor traffic violation.

- Is not in good standing or is the current subject of an academic, honor code, or disciplinary violation at his or her eligible educational institution.

A Recipient shall notify the Foundation before September 1 if the Recipient does not need part or all of the scholarship award for any reason. In such case, the scholarship award will be rescinded and revoked and any monies paid shall be refunded and returned unless the Recipient avails himself or herself of the option available in Paragraph (H).

Before September 1, a Recipient may request, by written application to the Foundation, any excess and unused money from a scholarship award in any particular academic year be extended to the following academic year. The Scholarship Committee, in its sole and absolute discretion and judgment, may grant such extension. If the student makes no contact or does not respond to Foundation information requests by September 1, Foundation will rescind the scholarship award and any unused money from a scholarship award shall be forfeited and returned to, or retained by, the Foundation.

A Recipient who withdraws for fall term from his or her eligible educational institution may request, by written application before October 15 to the Foundation, to have the balance of any unused amount of a scholarship award held and applied to a new eligible educational institution as long as the student enrolls in such new eligible educational institution no later than the immediately following spring term. A Recipient who withdraws for spring term from his or her eligible educational institution may request, by written application before March 1 to the Foundation, to have the balance of any unused amount of a scholarship award held and applied to a new eligible educational institution as long as the student enrolls in such new eligible educational institution no later than the immediately following fall term. If the Recipient is enrolled and in good standing at such new eligible educational institution, then the remaining balance of the unused amount of the scholarship award will be applied to the tuition and fees at the new eligible educational institution (provided, however, that all the terms, requirements, and criteria of the particular scholarship fund continue to be met, especially any requirements that may relate to a specified college, university, or eligible educational institution). If the student makes no contact or does not respond to Foundation information requests by September 1, Foundation will rescind the scholarship award and any unused money from a scholarship award shall be forfeited and returned to, or retained by, the Foundation.

The Foundation's "scholarship year" is comprised of the standard university Fall and Spring terms. Scholarship awards shall not be applied to any summer term before the Recipient's initial Fall or Spring term. Scholarship awards will be applied to only regular fall through spring terms and may not be applied to special terms, including summer terms-, except as follows:

If the full amount of a scholarship award is not used for the Recipient's Fall and Spring terms, then any excess amount may be applied to the immediately succeeding Summer term if the Recipient notifies Foundation that Recipient will be attending a Summer term. Such notification must be received by Foundation no later than March 1.

Scholarship awards may be used for summer terms following the Recipient's initial Fall or Spring term if the Recipient notifies Foundation in sufficient time (such time to be determined in Foundation's sole discretion).

Foundation may decide, in its sole discretion and authority, to not apply any scholarship award to a summer term.

All other rules and criteria in this document continue to apply.

Study abroad programs may be funded through Foundation scholarships as long as those programs meet the scholarship criteria set forth in the agreement and herein.

If a Recipient declines all or part of a scholarship award for any reason, the Recipient shall immediately notify the Foundation in writing of such declination. In such case, the scholarship award, or part thereof, shall be revoked and rescinded and any monies paid shall be returned. Recipients shall immediately notify the Foundation in writing of any violation of the rules and criteria of their particular scholarship and of the above rules.

Recipients shall immediately notify the Foundation in writing of any other event that might reasonably be expected to affect the Recipient's continued eligibility for a scholarship.

Recipients shall cooperate with the Foundation to assure full disclosure.

All recipients shall give permission to the Marion Community Foundation staff and Scholarship Committee to communicate with any person regarding the applicant's academic, financial, or any other personal information the staff or committee deems necessary.

All recipients shall give their consent to use the recipient's name, photograph, and academic and personal information for any publicity purposes the Foundation deems appropriate. All applicants and recipients shall give their consent to allow the staff of Marion Community Foundation to obtain, collect, use, and disclose the applicant's or recipient's personal and academic data and information. All applicants and recipients shall give their consent for staff of Marion Community Foundation to contact any person (including, but not limited to, parents, guardians, teachers, guidance counselors, school administrators, and scholarship selection committee members) and discuss any personal data or information about the applicant or recipient. All applicants and recipients shall give their consent to allow any third parties to disclose to Marion Community Foundation all personal and academic data and information about the applicant or recipient.

Failure of a recipient to meet any of the rules or criteria of a specific scholarship, or to meet any of the above rules or criteria, or to submit any required documentation within a determined period of time, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Foundation's Board of Directors or its Scholarship Committee, may result in the rescission, revocation, and return of the Recipient's scholarship award.

The Foundation, either through its Board of Directors or its Scholarship Committee, at such board's or committee's sole and absolute discretion, may waive the violation of any rules and criteria.

MULTI-YEAR SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS: ADDITIONAL SPECIAL RULES

Students will be notified if their award is for a single year or renewable for multiple years.

Unless specifically stated in the scholarship fund agreement that a multi-year scholarship is automatically renewed, multi-year scholarship awards will be considered as "renewable" based upon the following criteria:

Recipients must maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. If, at any time, a Recipient does not maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, then the entire remaining balance of the scholarship awarded shall be rescinded and revoked and the Recipient shall not be allowed to renew or re-apply for the particular multi-year scholarship to which they were awarded. Proof of a student's grade point average shall be based upon an official school transcript that has been received by the Foundation no later than June 15 (or at such other times as requested by the Foundation). It is the recipient's sole and absolute responsibility to obtain such transcript and ensure its receipt by the Foundation before the deadline.

A recipient must be a "candidate for a degree" enrolled and in good standing at his or her "eligible educational institution" (as those terms are defined herein and by the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations) to be eligible to receive a scholarship award. Proof of a student's enrollment and status shall be based upon official school documentation that has been received by the Foundation no later than thirty (30) days after the start of the term. It is the recipient's sole and absolute responsibility to obtain such documentation and ensure its receipt by the Foundation before the deadline.

Recipients must deliver to the Foundation a copy of their tuition and fee statement from their eligible educational institution no later than thirty (30) days after the start of the term.

Because multi-year scholarship awards are merely "renewable" and not automatically renewed, the Foundation will not permit potential awards from future years to be applied to a current year to pay tuition, fees, and expenses that are not fully covered by the current year scholarship award.

Unless otherwise specifically stated in the scholarship fund agreement's requirements and criteria, a multi-year scholarship award will not be awarded for a period longer than four (4) successive academic years. A Recipient who completes his or her degree in less than four (4) academic years forfeits any outstanding scholarship award and is not entitled to renew any multi-year scholarship award unless the Recipient is enrolled as a "candidate for a degree" at a "qualified educational institution", in which case the scholarship award may be renewed for an additional year or years not to exceed a total of four (4) successive academic years.

Exception: A Recipient who is participating in a school-sponsored co-op program or other school-sponsored program in which tuition and fees are partially or fully waived or not required may notify the Foundation of such fact and the Scholarship Committee, in its sole and absolute discretion and judgment, may extend the multi-year award for one (1) additional year.

A multi-year scholarship will not be awarded to a student who is any of the following as determined in the sole and absolute and absolute discretion and judgment by a majority of the Scholarship Committee of the Foundation:

Fails to demonstrate high standards of citizenship.

Fails to demonstrate high standards of moral character.

Has been charged with, pled guilty to, or found guilty by a court of law of any criminal offense other than a minor traffic violation.

Is not in good standing or is the current subject of an academic, honor code, or disciplinary violation at his or her eligible educational institution.

Recipients shall immediately notify the Foundation in writing of any violation of the rules and criteria of their particular scholarship and of the above rules.

Recipients shall immediately notify the Foundation in writing of any other event that might reasonably be expected to affect the Recipient's continued eligibility for a scholarship.

Recipients shall cooperate with the Foundation to assure full disclosure.

Failure of a recipient to meet any of the rules or criteria of a specific scholarship or of any of the above rules or criteria, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Foundation's Board of Directors or its Scholarship Committee, may result in the rescission, revocation, and return of the Recipient's scholarship award.

The Foundation, either through its Board of Directors or its Scholarship Committee, at such board's or committee's sole and absolute discretion, may waive the violation of any rules and criteria.

Under Section 4966 of the Tax Code, a fund will not be considered a donor-advised fund if all the following are true:

The sponsoring organization (the community foundation) appoints all of the members of the scholarship committee and the donor's advice is given solely as a member of the committee; Neither the donor nor the parties related to the donor control the scholarship committee directly or indirectly; and,

All grants are awarded on an objective and nondiscriminatory basis using a procedure that has been approved in advance by the board of directors of the sponsoring organization and that has been designed to ensure that all such grants meet the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) of section 4945(g) of the Tax Code.

The Foundation intends for the award from this fund to be a non-taxable qualified scholarship. As such, the Foundation will disburse the scholarship award in a manner that best attempts to ensure the funds are used only for: 1) tuition and fees required to enroll at or attend an eligible educational institution, meaning one whose primary function is the presentation of formal instruction, normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum, and normally has a regularly enrolled body of students in attendance at the place where it carries on its educational activities; and 2) course-related expenses, such as fees, books, supplies, and equipment that are required for the courses at the eligible educational institution and that must be required of all students in the course of instruction.

Any amounts in excess of the above shall be refunded and returned to the Foundation. If the eligible educational institution applies any amounts to any charges other than the above, including, but not limited to, such expenses as room and board, then the eligible educational institution shall be responsible for notifying the student/recipient that such amounts are taxable income. All of a portion of this scholarship may be taxable income, Recipients should consult a tax advisor for more information.

Scholarship awards may only be payable to a non-profit, federally tax-exempt eligible educational institution as defined by the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations.

GENERAL RULES

Unless specifically permitted by the terms of a particular scholarship fund, recipients must be a "candidate for a degree at an eligible educational institution."

"Candidate for a degree" means the recipient is: Pursuing a degree at a college or university; or Attending an educational institution that: Provides a program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's or higher degree, or offers a program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation; and, Is authorized under federal or state law to provide such a program and is accredited by a nationally recognized accreditation agency.

"Eligible educational institution" means one (1) whose primary function is the presentation of formal instruction and (2) that normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and (3) normally has a regularly enrolled body of students in attendance at the place where it carries on its educational activities.

Therefore, unless specifically permitted by the terms of a particular scholarship fund, scholarships shall not be awarded to students enrolled in online, digital, or other types of distance-learning institutions.

The Foundation may do any combination of the following for any unused portion of a scholarship award that is forfeited or returned:

Decide to hold and apply the amount to a new eligible educational institution as long as the student enrolls in such new eligible educational institution no later than the immediately following spring term (provided, however, that the all the terms, requirements, and criteria of the particular scholarship fund continue to be met, especially any requirements that may relate to a specified eligible educational institution).

Be extended to the following academic year for the Recipient.

Retain or return the amount to the principal of the fund.

Award part of all of the unused amount to a different Recipient in the current scholarship application year.

Hold the unused amount and make it available to be awarded to a new Recipient(s) in the next succeeding scholarship application year.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION RULES AND GUIDELINES

Applicants who fail to fully complete the scholarship application by the deadline will not be considered in the review process and are ineligible to receive a scholarship award. Incomplete FAFSA information will not be considered as an excuse for failure to submit the application by the deadline. Students whose parents have not received the appropriate tax information or documentation in time must still complete the FAFSA in the manner provided under such circumstances and submit their FAFSA/SAR/EFC information to the Foundation prior to the scholarship application deadline. EXCEPTION: Applicants may elect to not include the Applicant's FAFSA or standardized test score information in the Applicant's application, but such election and failure to include such information may disqualify such Applicant from the terms of particular scholarship criteria and requirements and Foundation's Scholarship Committee may take into consideration - to the detriment of the Applicant - the lack of FAFSA or standardized test score information when making its award decisions.

The preceding general rule shall be followed as much as possible; however, any of the following may be considered by the Scholarship Committee in its sole discretion as an exception to the above general rule, in which case the Scholarship Committee may permit an application to be filed after the deadline:

Applicants whose school guidance counselor or other school, college, or university official contacts the Foundation before the application deadline and informs the Foundation that the school, college, or university was unable to submit required information or documentation due to an unavoidable event such as, but not necessarily limited to, a mechanical or electronic failure or problem with its data transmission system.

The unexpected death or physical incapability of a recommender, school guidance counselor, or other school, college, or university official who was responsible for forwarding required information or documentation to the Foundation if the Foundation is notified before the application deadline of the facts related to such incapability.

Legal non-citizens who are incapable by law of completing the FAFSA.

An act of God or other natural disaster that prohibited the completion of the application by the deadline.

Applicants who are not a U.S. citizen are not eligible for a scholarship award. The following applicants who are not a U.S. citizen are excepted from this general rule and are eligible for a scholarship award:

Persons who have been granted legal status in the United States (for example, but not limited to, a lawful permanent resident, a lawful conditional permanent resident, or a lawful temporary visitor); or,

Persons who possess a valid certificate of non-citizen national status issued by the U.S. Secretary of State; or, S. Nationals.

If the terms, requirements, and criteria of a particular scholarship fund expressly state that an applicant must have attended a specifically named high school, then students who have been "home schooled" or students who have been enrolled in a "community school" (including, but not limited to, so-called virtual schools, online schools, or e-schools) or a state recognized "private religious school" or "chartered non-public school" are not eligible for awards from that particular scholarship fund. If the terms, requirements, and criteria of a scholarship fund do not expressly state that an applicant must have attended a specifically named high school, then students who have been "home schooled" or students who have been enrolled in a "community school" or a state recognized "private religious school" or "chartered non-public school" will be eligible for consideration for a scholarship award. "Community school" and state recognized "private religious schools" and "chartered non-public school" have the meanings proscribed to them by the Ohio Revised Code, the Ohio Administrative Code, and the Ohio Department of Education.

All applicants will give permission to the Marion Community Foundation staff and Scholarship Committee to communicate with any person regarding the applicant's academic and financial information, or any other information the staff or committee deems necessary.

A high school student who completes his or her high school graduation requirements earlier than the standard completion date (e.g., a student who completes all high school graduation requirements in fewer than eight standard terms), but who does not receive a diploma or "graduate" at such time, shall be treated as a "senior and candidate for graduation" during the Foundation's scholarship application process immediately following the student's completion of his or her graduation requirements. Conversely, a high school student who completes his or her high school graduation requirements earlier than the standard completion date (e.g., a student who completes all high school graduation requirements in fewer than eight standard terms), but who does receive a diploma and "graduates" at such time, shall be treated as a "graduate" during the Foundation's scholarship application process immediately following the student's completion of his or her graduation requirements.

Foundation will use the information as submitted by the applicant on the application when reviewing and determining whether the applicant meets the criteria and requirements of Foundation's various scholarships.

Foundation will use the applicant's name exactly as submitted by the applicant on the application when making award notifications, correspondence, awards certificates, award ceremonies, and any promotion in print or otherwise unless the applicant specifically notifies Foundation in writing of a different name to use.

Foundation will rely on the good faith integrity of the applicant to submit all information on the application in an honest and accurate manner and the applicant shall attest to the honesty, accuracy, and integrity of the application at the time the application is submitted. If Foundation becomes aware of any lack of honesty, accuracy, or integrity in the application, Foundation may take any action it deems appropriate or necessary, including rejection of the application or revocation of any scholarship awarded.

By submitting an application, the applicant agrees to all the guidelines, procedures, and requirements of Foundation's Scholarship Program Guidelines and Procedures.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS: RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Scholarship awards may only be payable to a non-profit, federally tax exempt eligible educational institution as defined by the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations.

Recipients must meet all the requirements and criteria of the scholarship to which they were awarded.

Proof of a student's grade point average shall be based upon an official school transcript that has been received by the Foundation with the student's application. It is the recipient's sole and absolute responsibility to obtain such transcript and ensure its receipt by the Foundation before the deadline.

A recipient must be a "candidate for a degree" enrolled and in good standing at his or her "eligible educational institution" (as those terms are defined herein and by the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations) to be eligible to receive a scholarship award. Proof of a student's enrollment and status shall be based upon official school documentation that has been received by the Foundation no later than thirty (30) days after the start of the term. It is the recipient's sole and absolute responsibility to obtain such documentation and ensure its receipt by the Foundation before the deadline.

Recipients must deliver to the Foundation a copy of their tuition and fee statement from their eligible educational institution no later than thirty (30) days after the start of the term. Failure to deliver said tuition and fee statement will result in the rescission and revocation of the scholarship award.

A scholarship award to a Recipient may be rescinded or revoked, in the sole and absolute and absolute discretion and judgment by a majority of the Scholarship Committee of the Foundation, if the Recipient:

Fails to demonstrate high standards of citizenship.

Fails to demonstrate high standards of moral character.

Has been charged with, pled guilty to, or found guilty by a court of law of any criminal offense other than a minor traffic violation.

Is not in good standing or is the current subject of an academic, honor code, or disciplinary violation at his or her eligible educational institution.

A Recipient shall notify the Foundation before September 1 if the Recipient does not need part or all of the scholarship award for any reason. In such case, the scholarship award will be rescinded and revoked and any monies paid shall be refunded and returned unless the Recipient avails himself or herself of the option available in Paragraph (H).

Before September 1, a Recipient may request, by written application to the Foundation, any excess and unused money from a scholarship award in any particular academic year be extended to the following academic year. The Scholarship Committee, in its sole and absolute discretion and judgment, may grant such extension. If the student makes no contact or does not respond to Foundation information requests by September 1, Foundation will rescind the scholarship award and any unused money from a scholarship award shall be forfeited and returned to, or retained by, the Foundation.

A Recipient who withdraws for fall term from his or her eligible educational institution may request, by written application before October 15 to the Foundation, to have the balance of any unused amount of a scholarship award held and applied to a new eligible educational institution as long as the student enrolls in such new eligible educational institution no later than the immediately following spring term. A Recipient who withdraws for spring term from his or her eligible educational institution may request, by written application before March 1 to the Foundation, to have the balance of any unused amount of a scholarship award held and applied to a new eligible educational institution as long as the student enrolls in such new eligible educational institution no later than the immediately following fall term. If the Recipient is enrolled and in good standing at such new eligible educational institution, then the remaining balance of the unused amount of the scholarship award will be applied to the tuition and fees at the new eligible educational institution (provided, however, that all the terms, requirements, and criteria of the particular scholarship fund continue to be met, especially any requirements that may relate to a specified college, university, or eligible educational institution). If the student makes no contact or does not respond to Foundation information requests by September 1, Foundation will rescind the scholarship award and any unused money from a scholarship award shall be forfeited and returned to, or retained by, the Foundation.

The Foundation's "scholarship year" is comprised of the standard university Fall and Spring terms. Scholarship awards shall not be applied to any summer term before the Recipient's initial Fall or Spring term. Scholarship awards will be applied to only regular fall through spring terms and may not be applied to special terms, including summer terms., except as follows: If the full amount of a scholarship award is not used for the Recipient's Fall and Spring terms, then any excess amount may be applied to the immediately succeeding Summer term if the Recipient notifies Foundation that Recipient will be attending a Summer term. Such notification must be received by Foundation no later than March 1.

Scholarship awards may be used for summer terms following the Recipient's initial Fall or Spring term if the Recipient notifies Foundation in sufficient time (such time to be determined in Foundation's sole discretion).

Foundation may decide, in its sole discretion and authority, to not apply any scholarship award to a summer term.

All other rules and criteria in this document continue to apply.

Study abroad programs may be funded through Foundation scholarships as long as those programs meet the scholarship criteria set forth in the agreement and herein.

If a Recipient declines all or part of a scholarship award for any reason, the Recipient shall immediately notify the Foundation in writing of such declination. In such case, the scholarship award, or part thereof, shall be revoked and rescinded and any monies paid shall be returned. Recipients shall immediately notify the Foundation in writing of any violation of the rules and criteria of their particular scholarship and of the above rules.

Recipients shall immediately notify the Foundation in writing of any other event that might reasonably be expected to affect the Recipient's continued eligibility for a scholarship.

Recipients shall cooperate with the Foundation to assure full disclosure.

All recipients shall give permission to the Marion Community Foundation staff and Scholarship Committee to communicate with any person regarding the applicant's academic, financial, or any other personal information the staff or committee deems necessary.

All recipients shall give their consent to use the recipient's name, photograph, and academic and personal information for any publicity purposes the Foundation deems appropriate. All applicants and recipients shall give their consent to allow the staff of Marion Community Foundation to obtain, collect, use, and disclose the applicant's or recipient's personal and academic data and information. All applicants and recipients shall give their consent for staff of Marion Community Foundation to contact any person (including, but not limited to, parents, guardians, teachers, guidance counselors, school administrators, and scholarship selection committee members) and discuss any personal data or information about the applicant or recipient. All applicants and recipients shall give their consent to allow any third parties to disclose to Marion Community Foundation all personal and academic data and information about the applicant or recipient.

Failure of a recipient to meet any of the rules or criteria of a specific scholarship, or to meet any of the above rules or criteria, or to submit any required documentation within a determined period of time, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Foundation's Board of Directors or its Scholarship Committee, may result in the rescission, revocation, and return of the Recipient's scholarship award.

The Foundation, either through its Board of Directors or its Scholarship Committee, at such board's or committee's sole and absolute discretion, may waive the violation of any rules and criteria.

MULTI-YEAR SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS: ADDITIONAL SPECIAL RULES

Students will be notified if their award is for a single year or renewable for multiple years.

Unless specifically stated in the scholarship fund agreement that a multi-year scholarship is automatically renewed, multi-year scholarship awards will be considered as "renewable" based upon the following criteria:

Recipients must maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. If, at any time, a Recipient does not maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, then the entire remaining balance of the scholarship awarded shall be rescinded and revoked and the Recipient shall not be allowed to renew or re-apply for the particular multi-year scholarship to which they were awarded. Proof of a student's grade point average shall be based upon an official school transcript that has been received by the Foundation no later than June 15 (or at such other times as requested by the Foundation). It is the recipient's sole and absolute responsibility to obtain such transcript and ensure its receipt by the Foundation before the deadline.

A recipient must be a "candidate for a degree" enrolled and in good standing at his or her "eligible educational institution" (as those terms are defined herein and by the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations) to be eligible to receive a scholarship award. Proof of a student's enrollment and status shall be based upon official school documentation that has been received by the Foundation no later than thirty (30) days after the start of the term. It is the recipient's sole and absolute responsibility to obtain such documentation and ensure its receipt by the Foundation before the deadline.

Recipients must deliver to the Foundation a copy of their tuition and fee statement from their eligible educational institution no later than thirty (30) days after the start of the term.

Because multi-year scholarship awards are merely "renewable" and not automatically renewed, the Foundation will not permit potential awards from future years to be applied to a current year to pay tuition, fees, and expenses that are not fully covered by the current year scholarship award.

Unless otherwise specifically stated in the scholarship fund agreement's requirements and criteria, a multi-year scholarship award will not be awarded for a period longer than four (4) successive academic years. A Recipient who completes his or her degree in less than four (4) academic years forfeits any outstanding scholarship award and is not entitled to renew any multi-year scholarship award unless the Recipient is enrolled as a "candidate for a degree" at a "qualified educational institution", in which case the scholarship award may be renewed for an additional year or years not to exceed a total of four (4) successive academic years.

Exception: A Recipient who is participating in a school-sponsored co-op program or other school-sponsored program in which tuition and fees are partially or fully waived or not required may notify the Foundation of such fact and the Scholarship Committee, in its sole and absolute discretion and judgment, may extend the multi-year award for one (1) additional year.

A multi-year scholarship will not be awarded to a student who is any of the following as determined in the sole and absolute and absolute discretion and judgment by a majority of the Scholarship Committee of the Foundation:

Fails to demonstrate high standards of citizenship.

Fails to demonstrate high standards of moral character.

Has been charged with, pled guilty to, or found guilty by a court of law of any criminal offense other than a minor traffic violation.

Is not in good standing or is the current subject of an academic, honor code, or disciplinary violation at his or her eligible educational institution.

Recipients shall immediately notify the Foundation in writing of any violation of the rules and criteria of their particular scholarship and of the above rules.

Recipients shall immediately notify the Foundation in writing of any other event that might reasonably be expected to affect the Recipient's continued eligibility for a scholarship.

Recipients shall cooperate with the Foundation to assure full disclosure.

Failure of a recipient to meet any of the rules or criteria of a specific scholarship or of any of the above rules or criteria, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Foundation's Board of Directors or its Scholarship Committee, may result in the rescission, revocation, and return of the Recipient's scholarship award.

The Foundation, either through its Board of Directors or its Scholarship Committee, at such board's or committee's sole and absolute discretion, may waive the violation of any rules and criteria.
